

Funeral Consumers Alliance NORTH CAROLINA

While many don't want to talk about death, the Funeral Consumers Alliance North Carolina does.

We carefully watch and track the prices and practices of the funeral industry to help North Carolinians plan meaningful and affordable funerals, burials, cremations and other after-death arrangements.

You'll find resources and price lists on our website where you can donate to our effort or join our nonprofit organization.

The Funeral Consumers Alliance North Carolina (FCANC) helps you to be a more knowledgeable consumer when planning a funeral or purchasing funeral goods and services.

We make sure your rights are protected under the Federal Trade Commission's Funeral Rule.

We're not affiliated with the funeral industry or any religious groups. While we serve as a resource, we do not have funds to help pay for funerals.

FCANC is one of more than 70 funeral advocacy & education groups across the country affiliated with the national Funeral Consumers Alliance.
